

Each year, the Concours draws in vintage beauties from around the country as well as modern-day gems.

Vintage automobiles on display

Vintage cars and motorbike

Guests turn out for the Motor Cavalcade Concours d'Elegance in their best ensembles.

START YOUR ENGINES

The Motorcar Cavalcade Concours d'Elegance is back in Miami for car enthusiasts and patrons of the finer things in life. BY LAUREN PIERRE-LOUIS

A great car is only as great as the road it takes you down, and the road at JW Marriott is full of Miami opulence next month. Back for its second year, start 2023 off the right way by basking in automobile nirvana at the Motorcar Cavalcade Concours d'Elegance on Jan. 15.

With an experience second to none, car enthusiasts gather in grand garden party form to celebrate their love for remarkable cars, fine cuisine and luxury lifestyle at this event. With roughly 200 of the finest automobiles ever made on display ranging from vintage beauties to modern-day supercars and hypercars, each entrant of the Concours is rigorously vetted by the selection committee, with the truly rare and exceptional on display.

Unique to this Concours is its approach of combining and contrasting old and new, foreign and domestic, and original and custom cars—ensuring a never-before-seen collection of spectacular and extraordinary vehicles. Each display is awe-inspiring, with a palette of unique designs, astonishing engineering and exquisite style.

Supported by the Warren Henry Auto Group, attendees can expect to see vehicles in a class of their own. With cars like the 2021 Pagani Huayra Roadster BC—which won best in show last year—to the 2022 Bugatti Chiron Super Sport, the event provides a community and an all-inclusive experience to car lovers from around the world. With tickets at $575, the appreciation of the design and engineering of these vehicles is a celebration of a lifetime. 19999 W. Country Club Drive, Aventura, motorcarchivalcade.com

PHOTOS COURTESY OF WARREN HENRY AUTO GROUP